The Fed as a Criminal Organization

I pray, hope and trust that Ron Paul will be the next President of the U.S. If so, I think I have a shot at being one of the people he brings to Washington D.C. to help him implement his programs of reducing the governmental footprint. If so, I hope he appoints me the next head of the Fed. If so, I will do my level best to end this monstrosity of an institution with all deliberate speed, and institute a 100% gold backed dollar in its place. But more. I shall also do what I can to institute a Nuremberg type trial for all employees of the Fed. Not only should we audit them, we should throw in jail all of those responsible for counterfeiting, creating unemployment, inflation, and all but destroying our currency.

Won't You Come Back, Alan Greenspan? Won't You Come Back?

I'm not sure what a libertarian Nuremberg trial would make of you [Alan Greenspan]. But I know this much: if you repent, and try to do what you can, now, to promote liberty and make up for past misdeeds, things will be better for you than if you do not.
